Listening in Class

The Story

My teacher is telling us about the earth. She is showing us a globe.

I know where Africa is! I want to tell my teacher.

But she is talking now. I am listening.

I show her I am listening by sitting still. I look at her when she is talking. I wait for her to ask questions.

I listen to the questions. I raise my hand before I talk. I listen to the other kids when they talk.

The Facts

- Show your teacher you are listening.
- Look at her when she is talking.
- Raise your hand before you talk.
- Listen to the other kids too.

Questions

- What do you do to show you are a good listener?
- Why is it important to raise your hand?
